INTRODUCING

Blend's Autopilot Analytics Agent

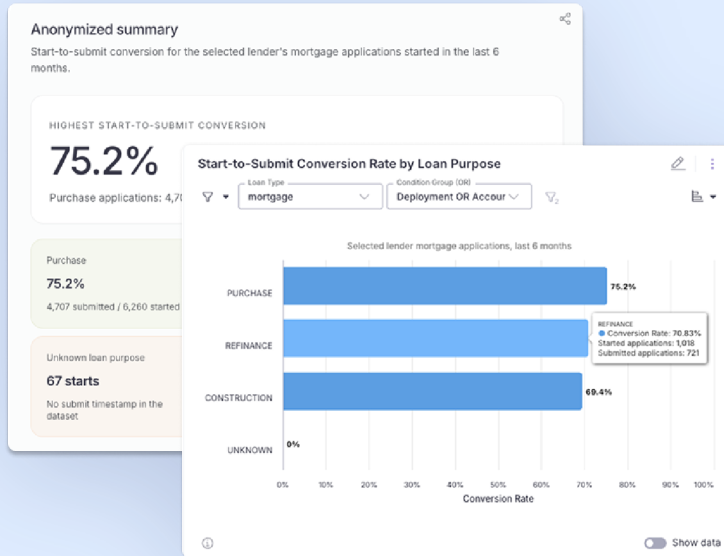
Understand performance across your entire lending operation — without leaving Blend.



AVAILABLE FOR Mortgage | HELOC | Home Equity

A new way to see your business

BEFORE

- Raw data exports, no visualization
- Self-serve Excel downloads
- Analysis burden on the lender
- No connection to your broader data

NOW

- ✓ On-demand AI-powered dashboards
- ✓ Ask questions in plain language
- ✓ AI-assisted business insight, not raw data
- ✓ Built on borrower activity in blend, extensible to your full tech stack

Key capabilities

On-demand charts and KPI summaries

Generate visualizations, metric cards, and tables ready to share in any meeting or review.

End-to-end journey analysis

Track performance from application creation through submit, closing, disclosures, and borrower experience.

Segment comparison and outlier detection

Slice by loan type, branch, assignee, lead source, device, borrower segment, or time period.

Deep-dive investigation

Surface patterns, flag potential changes, and highlight areas where teams should focus next.

Availability

Blend's Autopilot analytics agent is available now for customers on Blend's Home Lending platform, and as a self-serve option in Blend's LO Officer Toolkit. Once enabled, it will be accessible through the reporting section within the LO Toolkit.

Blend's Autopilot analytics agent is designed to surface data-driven insights to support human analysis and business decisions. AI-generated outputs, including dashboards, summaries, and visualizations, are probabilistic and may not be complete or fully accurate. All outputs should be reviewed by qualified team members before being relied upon. Customer retains sole responsibility for all lending, underwriting, and business decisions.
